

Citrix, Upwork partner to streamline employer access to freelancers

With the COVID-19 pandemic creating so much disruption in employment, independent contractors have seen higher demand alongside increased levels of sophistication around projects. To meet this growing need, Citrix partnered with Upwork to allow clients to find, hire and deploy freelancers while also providing them access to enterprise technology.

To read the article, please visit HRDive.