

How Illinois Quickly Set Up Remote Work for 27K Employees

Good government means good telework, and the transition to working from home has been an urgent challenge for all 50 states. But the State of Illinois is proving it doesn't have to be a debilitating one.

To read the article, please visit Government Technology.