

Home network setups pose remote work challenge

Having Citrix Workspace in place pre-pandemic made the shift to remote work easier for William Fry employees

The IT team at William Fry faced the same remote work challenge at the start of the COVID-19 pandemic as so many others: how to ensure its employees could pack up their laptops and do their jobs from home. Click here to see how Citrix helped them manage it.

To read the article, please visit TechTarget.