

Manufacturer turns to micro apps to save time

An electronics manufacturer is in the planning stages of implementing micro apps in Citrix Workspace in the hopes of saving time and easing distractions.

The remote work environment has put a premium on employee productivity, and manufacturer Kemet Electronics Corp. is eyeing customizing micro apps to focus an employee's digital working environment.

To read the article, please visit TechTarget.