

Using machine learning to make work 'suck a little less'

The new intelligent feed in Workspace is designed to create a more consumer-like experience for workers that cuts down on meaningless tasks.

Citrix has announced the general availability of new features for Citrix Workspace, including an intelligent feed and personalized workflows, designed to make work simpler, smarter and more meaningful.

To read this article, please visit ZDNet.com