

Citrix ShareFile a remote work tool for San Francisco 49ers

The San Francisco 49ers play on a big stage, but they face the same work-from-home challenges as many businesses. They use the remote work tool Citrix ShareFile to help overcome them.

Although it is football's off-season, there is no shortage of both daily tasks and long-term planning for the San Francisco 49ers to do. The need for social distancing means the organization has turned to tech -- like the remote work tool Citrix ShareFile -- to accomplish its goals.
