

How a 2017 snowstorm prepared an Oregon hospital system for the COVID-19 pandemic

When the growing pandemic and expected work-from-home orders became apparent by March 1, the health system put the lessons learned from that snowstorm into place.

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit in March and work-from-home orders followed, Legacy Health was ready thanks to lessons learned from a 2017 snowstorm and Citrix.

To read the article, please visit TechRepublic