Who is the Citrix Cloud Success program for?

Available at no additional cost, the Cloud Success program is offered to all customers upon purchase of a Citrix Cloud subscription. The expert-led program is designed to help all customers connect Citrix Cloud to business outcomes, measure progress, and ultimately, drive end user adoption to exceed intended return on investment.

How does engaging Citrix Cloud Success work?

Upon purchase of a Citrix Cloud service, you will be assigned a dedicated Cloud Success Manager (CSM).

Your CSM will work with you to set concrete cloud goals based on your business objectives, and measure your progress towards them – helping you benchmark your success against your peers, and accelerate end user adoption with tried and tested strategies.

They will also help you understand and leverage the Citrix resources at your disposal, while personally coordinating any additional Citrix product, engineering, and services expertise you may need.

What will you get?

An assigned Cloud Success Manager will guide your Citrix Cloud journey through the following entitlements:

- Personalized Success Plan aligned to implementation phases
- Direct liaison with internal Citrix subject matter experts
- General guidance on the use of Citrix Cloud services
- Development of a roadmap to drive feature adoption
- Introductions to new products, services, and features
