Mobility Management

XenMobile Pilot Deployment

Citrix Consulting utilizes proven methodology coupled with extensive field experience to take each project through the critical steps from inception to operation. Our approach focuses on ensuring that each project is properly planned and designed before implementation begins so that the end result minimizes risk and delivers maximum business impact.

Solution Overview

Mobility Pilot Services provides deployment options for Citrix XenMobile, including mobile device management (MDM), secure data sharing, mobile application management, and complete XenMobile Enterprise implementation.

These production pilot offerings accelerate implementation and help minimize risk, providing control over mobile devices for enhanced security and compliance, and give users the freedom to work productively with apps and data on their device of choice.
