

Citrix Receiver for BlackBerry

To install Citrix Receiver for BlackBerry

Typically, your system manager installs Receiver and necessary certificates for you. If you prefer, you can sideload Receiver on devices in the personal perimeter from the BlackBerry store. After sideloading Receiver, you must configure Receiver with a server address that your IT department provides to you. For help with your Receiver installation, we recommend that you contact your system administrator or Help Desk.